MAMA SHELTER

They did what they set out to do. On launching MAMA SHELTER PARIS in 2008 its founders (Serge, Jérémie, Benjamin Trigano, Cyril Aouizerate and Philippe Starck) announced that their development would be created around a single philosophy: to establish MAMAs in locations that tell a unique story of the world.

Claiming the freedom to choose only by favourites, they looked for original places, where they could express their ideal of an atypical, eccentric, participative and unique place of life.

After Paris, it is in Marseille, Istanbul, Lyon and Bordeaux that they continued to write this unique vision. They choose cities capable of accommodating their dream of generous and overflowing hospitality. Cities that, while rejoicing their legacy, resolutely turn their soul to elsewhere and the future. Cities where their ideal of a pacified humanity comes alive.

JÉRÉMIE TRIGANO

In the historic Saint-Blaise neighbourhood located in the heart of authentic Paris with its flowerlined café terraces, its gardens and its air of rebellion, MAMA SHELTER welcomes you.

Between the artists' studios, Père Lachaise, the Campagne à Paris & the winding cobblestone streets, you will feel the lingering spirit of Edith Piaf, Oscar Wilde, Jim Morrison and other great artists. Mama settled down along the little-belt, symbolic railway of the Old-Paris, and just in front of « La Flèche d'Or », mythic Parisian temple of the European pop rock scene.

Sensual and elegant, the 172 rooms entirely designed by Philippe Starck are equipped with iMac 27" proposing free VOD, photobooth and videobooth, internet, TV, computer... and a 5 Star bedding.

The restaurant proposes simple and homemade dishes, created by Alain Senderens and Jérôme Banctel to share between friends around large tables.

At the huge bar, the pizzeria or the terrace, you will surely cross paths with American poets, Japanese painters or Latin American authors.

In summer, the rooftop allows to let your eyes wander over Paris' roofs sea at the slow rhythm of the hammock's swing or the sound of a table-tennis game.

During a giant table football game, a improvised photobooth or videobooth session, in front of live music on stage or simply around a meal or a cocktail, the MAMA SHELTER experience has to be lived. More than a place to eat and sleep, it's an experience made of meeting and sharing proposed to everyone.

Offering shelter from the intrusions of the outside world, MAMA SHELTER aims to be comfortable, warm and comforting, as much as it is lively, joyful and heavenly.
